The offender has not complied with the following condition(s) of supervision:

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

On May 17, 2005, the defendant was contacted at his residence and he admitted to using the cocaine. He advised he was fishing with some friends and they offered the drugs. The defendant stated he was no longer having any contact with these individuals. The defendant's drug testings were increased from two samples per month to four. To date the defendant has continued to maintain his sobriety and continues to help his elderly mother who is homebound. For this reason it would be respectfully recommended no action be taken at this time.
